Ramakrishna Mission Vidyapith

Deoghar, Jharkhand - 814 112

INTRODUCTION

The idea of Ramakrishna Mission Vidyapith, Deoghar was first conceived by Swami Turiyananda, a disciple of Sri Ramakrishna, who inspired Brahmachari Vidyachaitanya to start a school in order to implement the man-making ideas of Swami Vivekananda. Accordingly, Br. Vidyachaitanya rented a small house at Mihijam in May 1922 and started a school with three day-scholars. Eight months later, in January 1923, he left Mihijam and came to Deoghar with twelve students. Staying initially in a house on Rohini Road for one and a half months, he subsequently shifted to another place on the Kachahari Road. Thereafter, in mid 1924, he once again shifted the school to the Khema Villa and the Bama Villa in Deoghar.

Meanwhile, the work of procuring a plot of land for Vidyapith went on in full swing. On its accomplishment, the portion of the school located at Khema Villa was removed in 1925 to a couple of newly constructed houses, keeping the other portion at Bama Villa for a while more. Finally, when Vidyapith was totally shifted in its new premises, Swami Shivanandaji Maharaj, the then President of the Ramakrishna Order paid a visit and inaugurated the school ceremonially on January 19, 1926, the holy Saraswati Puja day. Shivanandaji Maharaj was deeply impressed by Vidyapith's dedicated services and said: "I visualize a great future for Vidyapith. I am convinced that great work will be done through this institution." His vision has indeed come true.

To shape Vidyapith from scratch, Brahmachari Vidyachaitanya had to struggle hard. Swami Turiyananda appreciated him wholeheartedly for his back-breaking efforts and affectionately called Vidyapith "A Brahmacharya Vidyalaya". Swami Saradananda, the then General Secretary of the Ramakrishna Mission and a disciple of Sri Ramakrishna, extended all possible support during Vidyapith's formative years.

Brahmachari Vidyachaitanya became a Sannyasin in due course and received the monastic name of Swami Sadbhavananda. In his first report as the Secretary of Vidyapith, he wrote: "Living in touch with sannyasins, the boys breathe here in an atmosphere of sacrifice and purity. The habit of self-help which strengthens the character of a man and makes him fit for the struggle of life is also carefully cultivated in the boys. By locating the school at a healthy place and by giving boys proper physical training, the institution aims at the improvement in their health. In short, it affords to its boys secular culture based on spirituality."

Vidyapith has been relentlessly following the principles of Swami Sadbhavananda laid down at the outset. It trains boys academically, intellectually, physically, aesthetically, morally and spiritually. In other words, Vidyapith is committed to implementing Swami Vivekananda's "Man-making and Character-building Education".

Deoghar

Deoghar is a well known place of worship. It is a place of Lord Shiva with an ancient temple of Baba Baidyanath. It is also a Shaktipith which is believed to have been harbouring the 'heart' of Goddess Sati.

Sri Ramakrishna, Sri Sarada Devi and Swami Vivekananda made pilgrimages to Deoghar at different times. Deoghar therefore has a special significance in the history of the Ramakrishna Movement. The 'educational work' of Ramakrishna Mission began from here formally, with the opening of the Vidyapith school.

A Premier Institution

A small school initially, Vidyapith has now grown into a premier institution of the country with many other activities added to it. This has been possible because of the indefatigable labour and the persistent prayers of the monks, workers and devotees of this centre of the Ramakrishna Mission.

Since a good deal of spade-work by its pioneers had gone into its beginning, Vidyapith stands on a solid foundation and eventually steers past many challenges. It has grown from strength to strength, creating ripples in society.

Nine Decades

Vidyapith has now completed ninety two years of its existence. It is, therefore, rich in experience and expertise. Witnessing ups and downs within this period, it has had slices of joy and ounces of sorrow during this period. A defining moment, however, arrived when it was conferred the "National Award" for outstanding work in the field of child welfare by the Government of India, in 1986. In recognition of its excellence, there are otherwise, accolades galore, for the exceptional performances in different fields of activity.

Vidyapith Today

The school is affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education, New Delhi. It had 510 students on its roll from classes VI to XII during 2013-14. Its residential section is divided into 16 Dhams (houses) named after the direct disciples of Sri Ramakrishna.

Vidyapith lays emphasis on value-based education. Boys, along with their daily lessons in academic students, receive instructions in Indian Culture & Value Education (ICVE). They attend morning and evening prayers in the shrine everyday. And, if need be, innovations in their training are also made, keeping the requirements of the changing time in view. In fine, for a comprehensive growth of boys, efforts are made to combine the modern method of education with the traditional method of Gurukula system.

Value Education

Vidyapith lays emphasis on value-based education. Boys, along with their daily lessons in academic studies, receive instructions in Indian Culture & Value Education (ICVE). Discipline is considered the cardinal virtue in Vidyapith. It expects the students to be honest, obedient, respectful, dutiful and sympathetic. On top of all, it wants that they should have love for the nation and its less-fortunate citizens.

An atmosphere of devotion and dedication, the Vidyapith holds, is absolutely necessary for proper education. Congregational prayers, devotional songs and fortnightly Ramnam Sankirtan in the campus create the right ambience for the purpose. Religious festivals viz. Janmashtami, Shiva Ratri, Holi, Sri Sri Saraswati Puja, Viswakarma Puja, birthdays of the Holy Trio, are celebrated. Boys take part in the shrine duties and ceremonial worships on various occasions.

The students clean their hostels in the morning. They practise Vedic Chanting regularly. Hanuman Chalisa is also recited in the hostels. As an auspicious beginning to Vidyapith life, Vidyarthivrata Sankalpa with Vedic Homa is performed every year for the new entrants to classes VI and XI.

As a part of moral and value based education in Vidyapith, there is a tradition of awarding prizes for Best Inculcation of Values, Best Behaviour and Best Leadership to the boys of classes X and XII. This year the prizes for Best Inculcation of Values, Best Behaviour and Best Leadership in class X were given respectively to Aditya Vats, Aditya Kashyap and Sachin Vats and in class XII, to Mayukh Singh, Vibhaswan Roy Choudhury and Vipul Kumar Mishra.

The purpose of the education process of Vidyapith is to achieve a comprehensive growth in the students. It believes youths academically accomplished, intellectually sharp, compassionately sensitive, physically active, morally sound and spiritually evolved are the real assets of the nation.

Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Ramakrishna Mission Vidyapith, Deoghar, preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
