NB:

1. NEET (National Eligibility cum Entrance Test) is the only entrance examination for admission to as many as 82,926 medical seats offered in 541 MBBS colleges all over India, which includes 278 government and 263 private institutes including AIIMS, JIPMER, AFMC, ESI, Delhi University (DU), BHU, AMU and Deemed Universities. Admissions to 26,949 BDS seats in 313 dental colleges are also made through this entrance test.
2. Students can avail of both State Quota (85% of the total medical seats) and All India Quota (15% of the total seats in every state) under the NEET examination, which will allow them to pursue a medical course not only in their own state, but also in other states.
3. State ranks will be published on a later date based on the domicile of the student.
